

LAURA CORNILLOT

Laura's curves are simply hypnotising, but not all that her beauty is about. Laura is a yoga loving, free spirit that believes in a holistic lifestyle. She is a studio model by day, country girl by night complete with riding boots, mud and waving hair as she ride in the wheat fields surrounding her home. Her dream is to own a retreat style ranch in the South of France and teach others to ride and connect with horses and other animals.
