

SOPHIE GORDON

We are absolutely mesmerised by Sophie's beauty. By the age of 13 she was discovered by one of the biggest modelling agencies in the world. Now, a decade later, she has starred in several major beauty campaigns for L'oreal, Dior, and Lancome, among others. She loves travelling to new places and is a passionate defender of animal rights. Sophie calls herself a simple woman who loves life and takes on any opportunity that comes her way. She is incredibly grateful for her life and all it has to offer.
